

I find the XM Satellite Radio service to be an invaluable service with their traffic and weather reports. It is VERY difficult, when traveling, to find stations that even give weather reports, yet alone traffic! XM provides this service because local broadcasters do not. Please consider allowing XM to continue to offer this service.